General Terms and Conditions

- Students are specifically enrolled only for the programme stated in this registration form and this enrolment is not transferable to any other student and or any other programme. Fees paid are also not transferable.
- Once registered, a space shall be committed to the student for the duration of the programme.
- Students shall attend only classes for which they have specifically registered and will not switch classes. Any request for the occasional switching of classes should be made to the school.
- The school reserves the right to expel a student from a course if the school feels that the continued presence of the student would be harmful to other students and/or the school. Any refunds made to the student will be in accordance to the school's refund policy.
- The student undertakes to behave in a proper manner at all times and further agrees to indemnify the school against any damage that he/she may cause to the school's premises and or property.
- The school reserves the right to postpone the start of any scheduled class/es by up to 21 days and is not required to give any reasons whatsoever. The school also reserves the right to vary the subjects offered, the time-table, programmes and teaching staff to better serve the students or as may be required.
- All representations made by the school regarding the various programmes are based on information made available by the various examining/governing bodies. While the school shall endeavour always only to provide updated information, the school shall not be held responsible for any change in policies, terms and conditions that these bodies may from time to time make to these programmes.
- It is further understood that the student shall ensure that he/she fully complies with the entrance requirements of these governing bodies.
- All fees due are to be paid by the due date; otherwise a surcharge of $100 will be imposed on late payments. No certificates or results are to be issued unless all fees owing are duly paid. Certificate issued by External Bodies are subject to External Bodies schedules, the school is not held responsible for the late issuance of these External Examination Bodies/ External Universities certifications. In the event that a decision is made by any External Examination Bodies/External Universities to prematurely stop the course, the course is deemed to be terminated by these External Bodies/ External Universities; fees paid for incomplete modules/undone modules will be refunded to the students only.
- No classes shall be scheduled on public holidays and during TEG International College Term Breaks.
- The school shall not be held liable for any damages to student property and or any personal injury or death to students whilst in the school premises.
